Instructions for candidates

- It is important that candidates arrive at the designated reporting venue before the reporting time as stated in the examination schedule. Candidates who arrive after the Reporting Time MAY NOT be allowed to sit the Science Practical examination.
- Science practical examinations are conducted in shifts. Candidates are required to report to the reporting venue before the start of the examination and candidates must report to the holding venue after their examination. Candidates must surrender all electronic devices upon reporting to the invigilators. Candidates will be quarantined before and after the examinations.
- Candidates found in possession of any electronic devices anytime at the reporting venue, science laboratory or holding venue, be it before or after their Science Practical Examination, are liable to the same penalty as those who commit an act of dishonesty.
- Candidates are not allowed to bring in any reference materials and/or any unauthorised materials, including the Periodic Tables and/or devices as stipulated in the Examination Rules and Regulations into the science laboratory.

Movement of candidates:

- Invigilators will guide candidates in their movement from one venue to another (e.g. from reporting venue to exam venue). Candidates must move together in an orderly manner and are not allowed to go elsewhere on their own.

During the quarantine period (before and after the examination):

- Candidates who need to go for toilet break will be accompanied by invigilators.
- Candidates are not allowed to leave the Reporting and Holding venues without permission.
- Candidates are strongly advised to bring their own dry rations and water for consumption. They will not be allowed to purchase food and drinks during the quarantine period.
- Use the holding time wisely. No playing of games. Bring along notes and practice papers for self-study.
